

SentriLock Names John G. Wenker Vice President of Finance and Controller

Tenured Financial Executive Adds Depth and International Experience to Management Team

Cincinnati, OH (PRWEB) February 4, 2010 -- SentriLock is pleased to announce the addition of John G. Wenker as Vice President of Finance and Controller. Wenker's more than 25 years of financial and management experience helping organizations affect positive change give SentriLock another proven executive leader.

John G. Wenker's professional tenure includes companies such as PricewaterhouseCoopers, LLP, an organization that measures its success by the success of its customers. This type of thinking is exactly in line with SentriLock's focus on customer service. Wenker has also worked for a number of other companies such as Cincinnati Tyrolit, Inc., Chiquita Brands International, Hillenbrand Industries, Inc., and Huntington National Bank. He earned his B.S.B.A. in Management and Economics at Xavier University, and went on to earn his Masters of International Management in International Finance at the highly acclaimed American Graduate School of International Management (Thunderbird) in Glendale, Arizona.

"We are thrilled to have an executive of John's caliber join our team," comments SentriLock cofounder, President and CEO Scott R. Fisher. "We received a number of qualified applicants for the position, but John really stood out from the others. SentriLock's growth requires an experienced professional to oversee our finances, and we are focused on maintaining the great work environment that resulted in our being named a Finalist in the 2009 'Best Places to Work' award."

"SentriLock is exactly the type of company I was looking to join," said Wenker. "In addition to a keen focus on customer service, the company is also constantly examining how we can trim production and overhead costs as well as growing top-line revenues. I look forward to improving processes and having a positive impact at such a great place to work."
