

Let's Unlock it Together

SentriLock offers the first and only combined lockbox, showing service, and experience management solution. If you can imagine it, we can unlock it.

SENTRIGUARD® LOCKBOX

SentriLock is the fastest-growing lockbox provider for a reason. Our best-in-class real estate access solutions are powerful, reliable, and built to last. We put the power of property access at your members' fingertips by delivering mobile-first convenience, ease of use, and fast access without fail. Multiple secure access methods ensure showings are never missed. Versatile controlled access enables authorized individuals, including out-of-area agents and contractors, to gain secure temporary access in any situation. Instant notifications and access logs give your clients peace of mind.

With SentriLock, your team gets an innovative partner that's always by their side. Faster access, stronger security, extended battery life, multiple access methods, and world-class support empower your members to win more business and deliver incredible customer experiences.

SENTRIKEY SHOWING SERVICE®

Sure, we're known for our lockbox innovation. That's why our customers asked us to build a showing service that applies the same innovative spirit, ease of use, and powerful feature set. We listened – and delivered.

We built the industry's first AI-powered showing service to help agents move faster, connect with buyers and sellers, and sell more. Built with the latest mobile and user experience technology, it's the most agent-friendly solution on the market. And as a trusted industry partner owned by the National Association of REALTORS®, your data is secure and private.

BASIC plan now available at no cost to all SentriLock customers!
